

Quality Control Manager

Gizemfrit, one of the world's leading enamel and ceramic frit producers, is subsidiary of Ak-kim Kimya, Akkök Holding. Having established in 1979, Gizemfrit manufactures frits and pigments used as intermediate raw materials for decorative and protective coating of sheet metal, stainless steel, aluminum, cast, ceramic tile, sanitary ware, porcelain, medical porcelain, and glass.

Gizemfrit is actively committed to developing its market presence and in line with the company's strategic targets, would like to recruit high calibre professionals in various functions and departments.

In order to lead and strengthen the team, Gizemfrit is in need of Quality Control Manager. In compliance with professional and ethical standards of the company, successful candidates will;

- Ensure operational excellence for incoming quality control and product quality control processes
- Provide all activities being conducted within the applicable guidelines of regulations, standards, and customers specs
- Evaluate and solve deviation problems systematically
- Analyze customer complaints, follow up and revert within specified target time frames
- Support the Production / R&D for improved process monitoring
- Develop & maintain analytical capabilities and ensure their reliability
- Improve the quality control systems according to the requirements

Candidate Profile

- Bachelor's degree in Chemical Engineering, Metallurgical and Materials Engineering or similar engineering departments,
- At least 10 years Quality Control experience with 3 years managerial experience preferably in Chemical, Automotive and similar sectors
- Excellent command of English
- Proficient in using MS Office applications
- Excellent problem solving and crisis management skills
- Must be analytical, creative minded and result oriented
- Strong interpersonal, negotiation, coordination, communication and coaching skills
- No military obligation for male candidates
- Having B type driving license and active driver
- Resident or able to reside in Sakarya or Kocaeli

Copyright Profil International, All rights reserved.